SUMMARY

Novograd-Volynskiy Army Barracks is located (Figure 1) in the northwest sector of Novograd-Volynskiy. The installation covers approximately 200 acres, has rail access, and is road served.

Within the installation (Figures 2 and 3) are 13 multistory barracks, five multistory administration buildings, 11 administration buildings, a vehicle maintenance building, seven vehicle storage buildings, 43 storage buildings, and 12 support buildings. Two athletic fields are the only training facilities observed.

The installation is active and little change has been noted; however, improvement in the quality of photography reveals buildings that are not new but could not be previously identified.
